1 Name, Scope and Level of the Course
The course is provided by the University of Skövde and is named English: Writing Texts about Facts and Opinions G1N. It comprises 7.5 credits and is on basic level. The level of progression of the course is G1N.

2 Objectives
After completed course the student should be able to:

- write different kinds of texts about facts and opinions - narrative, argumentative and analytical essays - with good structure and an appropriate level of style
- apply mainly correct grammar by using his/her own knowledge, a grammar book and various digital resources
- apply a varied and relevant vocabulary, among other things, with the help of digital resources

3 Course Content
The course focuses on writing various types of texts on facts and opinions: narrative, argumentative and analytical essays. Such text types have different structures of the content and different approaches, but the paragraph structure and the level of style are similar. The teaching of grammar takes as its starting-point various needs of expression and how these may be realised linguistically; however, common grammar errors are also treated, and various grammar exercises are provided. The use of digital resources such as grammar and spell checkers as well as online dictionaries are presented, discussed and practised. The students receive individual feedback from the teacher on both voluntary and compulsory written assignments and are expected to use this feedback to improve their writing for subsequent assignments.

4 Forms of Teaching
The teaching comprises lectures, discussions, exercises and individual feedback.

The teaching is conducted in English.

5 Examination
The course is graded A (Excellent), B (Very good), C (Good), D (Satisfactory), E (Sufficient) or F (Fail).

To achieve a final grade in this course the following must be met:
For a final grade of A, 4 credits must reach grade A and 2 credits at least grade B.
